

Vacancy notice 2023- 130 HQ (AD) – Head of Division SG.STRAT.3

EEAS Vacancy Notice – Head of Division Policy Planning and Strategic Foresight

Type of post "Head of Unit or equivalent"

EU Staff Members – AD 9-14– Candidates from the Member States – AD 12

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Policy Planning and Strategic Foresight Division, (SG.STRAT.3 also known as STRATPOL) serves as a source of strategic policy analysis and advice to the top Management of the EEAS as well as the HRVP and the Cabinet across a wide range of geographic and thematic topics with a view to inform policy and decision-making. STRATPOL's mission is to focus on the global strategic view and the longer-term perspective and on how to advance EU interests and values. The three core functions delivered by STRATPOL and related main activities are: (a) Catalyst for strategic thinking and foresight analysis, (b) Linking policy-planning with policy-making and (c) Fostering strategic and foresight culture.

We propose:

The post of Head of Division of the Division Policy Planning and Strategic Foresight Division, SG.STRAT.3.

Under the administrative authority of the Director for Strategic Communication and Foresight, the Head of Division exercises the overall management responsibility for the activities of the Division.

The main responsibilities are as follows:

- Define and coordinate the Division's strategic direction in line with the EEAS mission statement and set objectives.
- Establish and follow up the Division's organisation and ensure effective distribution of duties and responsibilities to Division staff in order to achieve the expected results and outputs using the resources allocated in the most effective and efficient manner in order for the division to deliver on its mission, both in terms of daily service and policy.
- Contribute to the work of the SG STRAT directorate by providing analysis and inputs on EU's strategic communication and influence and by linking up work of policy planning to how it affects the perception of the EU in the world.
- Ensure coordination with the European Union Institute for Security Studies (EUISS) of which the Strategic Policy Planning Division is the primary interface
- Complement the preparation of major high-level political dialogue events, by following events relevant to the agenda of the dialogue, including relevant international press coverage, in coordination with the line departments and/or by producing own orientation notes as appropriate.
- Coordinate preparation of informal strategic dialogues, based on cooperation with the respective geographical departments, with the aim of focusing these dialogues beyond a routine exchange of views.
- Provide analysis and policy recommendations on topical issues to the HRVP and to the other members of the senior management.
- Ensure regular interaction with relevant services of the Commission and other EU Institutions, in particular within the inter institutional foresight network, ESPAS (European Strategy and Policy Analysis System) and contribute to develop its international projection through ISPAS (International Strategy and Policy Analysis System)

- Maintain the network together of the Policy Planners of all Member States, with the aim to generate common thinking, to underpin consensus-building and to help foster an environment of strategic foreign policy thinking.
- Intensify further the political dialogue and develop regular contacts established with the G7 and key Third countries policy planners.
- Maintain regular contacts with the Academic and Think Tank Community, with the aim to ensure better knowledge of EEAS policies and initiatives, and to establish more effective links between research and policy-making.
- Participate / intervene in public events / seminars on the EU.

This position is classified as a “head of unit” type of post¹ in the grade bracket AD9-14.

Candidates from the diplomatic services of Member States would be recruited at AD 12 level.

The duration of the assignment to the post shall be, in principle, four years.

Legal Basis for the recruitment to this position

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29 of the Staff regulations (SR) if he or she is an official or a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) applies.
- recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State; such candidates shall be recruited at the level of AD 12.

We look for:

Eligibility Criteria²

General

Further to the conditions set out in Art 28 of the Staff Regulations (SR) or Art 12 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS), candidates must:

1. be officials of the Union institutions, or temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) applies, or staff from diplomatic services of the Member States;
2. have the capacity to work in the languages (English and French) of the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) and external relations, necessary for the performance of their duties. Knowledge of other EU languages would also be an asset;
3. have three years' management experience commensurate with the responsibilities of the post;³
4. have at least six years' proven, pertinent external relations experience - for staff from national diplomatic services this experience must have been gained from working in a national administration of one of the Member States.

² All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post

- SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR EU OFFICIALS AND TEMPORARY AGENTS FROM NATIONAL DIPLOMATIC SERVICES TO WHOM ARTICLE 2(E) OF THE CEOS APPLIES ("EU STAFF")

1. EU staff members (i.e. EU officials, and temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies) applying for this post must be AD9–AD14:

EU staff members (i.e. EU officials, and temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies) at AD 8 are eligible to apply if they have at least 2 years seniority at that grade.

In the event of a successful application, EU staff members at AD9-14 will be appointed at the same grade. EU staff members at AD8 will be promoted to AD9
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, applications from staff members currently serving in a Delegation who are not in rotation in 2021, are in principle not eligible and may only be considered in the interest of the service or in case of an application for a higher type of post (further on, "career progression").⁴ In addition, if they wish to apply for a post on the basis of career progression they should have spent at least 2 years on their current post when they take up duty.
3. Candidates who at the moment of the application are EU officials, independently of their administrative status (including officials on leave on personal grounds), cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS,

In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment in accordance with Articles 35 (a) and 40 of the Staff Regulations.
4. Candidates who at the moment of the application are Temporary Agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) applies must provide a statement issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs containing the elements provided for by the specific eligibility criteria for candidates from member states.

- SPECIFIC ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA FOR CANDIDATES FROM THE MEMBER STATES TO BE RECRUITED IN ACCORDANCE WITH ARTICLE 98 SR.

In line with Art 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from the diplomatic services of Member States of the Union must:

Brussels (Belgium)

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The successful candidate will be required to undergo security vetting if he/she does not already hold EU SECRET level security clearance, in accordance with the relevant security provisions.

Successful candidates from the Member States will be required to make a declaration of their commitment to act independently in the public interest and a declaration of any interests which might be considered prejudicial to their independence.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact the functional mailbox (CCA-SECRETARIAT@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure in equality of opportunities with other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1d.4 of the Staff Regulations.

PROCEDURE⁶

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the on-line system

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the afore-mentioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the on-line system.

In case of connection problems, you can also refer to the complete EU Login user guide:

https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/cas/manuals/EU_Login_Tutorial.pdf

During the on-line application procedure candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/documents/curriculum-vitae>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and a recent statement by their Ministry for Foreign Affairs (issued within the past 6 months) confirming their membership of a diplomatic service, or endorsement in case of candidates to be recruited under Art. 98(1), second subparagraph, SR.

All candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the on-line system.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 17 July 12.00 midday (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the on-line system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: cca-secretariat@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter, and will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the AIPN, who will make the final selection.

Shortlisted candidates might be invited to an Assessment Centre.

It is recalled, that if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedures can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
