EEAS Vacancy Notice – Administrator

Strategic Planner-Policy Officer in the Strategic Planning for Crisis Management Division (PCM.3 – Europe sector) of the EEAS

(Eligibility grade for EU officials and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 5 – AD 12 / Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States¹: AD 7)

Job n. 427644

We are

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the "EEAS") supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (hereafter, the "CFSP"), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The PCM.3 division is responsible for political-strategic integrated planning and mandate evaluation for CSDP actions and for political-strategic support/advice on security and defence crisis management issues. It supports a consistent EU response, from a CSDP perspective, to specific crisis situations based on the Integrated Approach for external conflicts and crises.

In particular, the division conducts (i) the integrated strategic planning of CSDP military and civilian missions/operations, including the development of Crisis Management Concepts (CMC) or similar options/concept papers, (ii) the evaluations of the mandates of CSDP missions/operations through Strategic Reviews and Assessments, (iii) the preparation of Council Decisions for CSDP missions/operations, defining their political, legal and financial framework as well as their further review and potential mandate adaptation, and (iv), in coordination with the relevant EU delegations, the process leading to the signature of Status of Mission/Forces Agreements with CSDP hosting countries.

The division is also responsible for providing CSDP/CFSP advice and support to lead services' work on security and defence aspects of crisis management, as well as on work with external actors (e.g. UN, NATO), and to other lead services working on the development of concepts and policy initiatives pertaining to CSDP. It also supports relevant chains of command (OHQs, CPCC and MPCC) in ensuring operational compliance of new policy initiatives by current CSDP missions and operations and in the establishment of new CSDP actions.

¹ Candidates from the Member States are primarily candidates from the national diplomatic services, in line with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the Staff Regulations. In the alternative, candidates from other national public entities may be considered, in line with the second subparagraph of this provision, in exceptional cases.

We propose:

The position of Strategic Planner-Policy Officer for the Strategic Planning for crisis management Division (PCM.3), situated in the EUROPE Sector. The successful candidate will plan and monitor EU CSDP missions/operations at politico-strategic level and review them at a politico-strategic level with a specific focus on the CSDP missions and operations in Europe. The successful candidate will also contribute to the development of horizontal concept and policy initiatives pertaining to CSDP missions and operations, as required.

The main responsibilities of the post are as follows:

- Leading planning at politico-strategic level, develop planning documents (option papers, CMCs, strategic reviews, strategic assessments and strategic analysis papers) for CSDP missions and operations in EUROPE (including Central Asia) and to that end, coordinate inputs from other relevant EU interlocutors.
- Participating in operational planning and the conduct phase.
- Drafting notes and all other documents relating to activities for which the Sector EUROPE is responsible, in particular strategic planning documents.
- Contributing to the development of horizontal concept and policy initiatives pertaining to CSDP missions and operations.
- Contributing to analysing, following-up and giving updates on the political, economic, security and/or humanitarian situations in Europe sector
- Elaborating and contributing toward the definition of CSDP policies with the objective of ensuring strategic political coherence in bilateral and / or multilateral relations.
- Coordinating with CSDP missions and operations on strategic aspects.
- Coordinating the preparation and the conduct of meetings at strategic planning level with international organizations such as the UN or NATO, third states, host nations and potential OHQ's.
- Assisting with the preparation of meetings of the Council and of its preparatory working parties.
- Representing the Head of Division or Sector at meetings of the Political and Security Committee and the preparatory groups/Working Party on these subjects.
- Leading and conducting or participating in missions to the field and be responsible for preparing the respective draft reports.
- Ensuring internal coordination within the EEAS in the framework of the EU Integrated Approach.
- Other tasks and duties in the interest of service, including support to planners on other files (including cross-cutting and horizontal files) within the section and division.

This position is classified as an "Administrator" type of post² in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12.

If selected for the post, candidates from the Member States (i.e. from the national diplomatic services or from other national public entities) will be recruited at grade AD 07.

In case of recruitment of a temporary agent, the duration of the assignment to the post shall, in principle, be four years.

If selected for the post, the contract of candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (CEOS) applies, will be amended and, if their grade is below the one set for candidates from the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 07.

² According to Annex I to the Staff Regulations and the relevant EEAS internal rules.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the Member States shall retain their current grade in case of selection for the post.

Legal basis for recruitment to this position:

The vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the following articles of the Staff Regulations (hereafter, the "SR"): Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1); Article 29(1)(b); Article 29(1)(c).

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) of the SR if he/she is currently assigned to the EEAS as an EU official or as a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(b) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from a national public entity other than the diplomatic service;
- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(b) of the SR if he/she is an EU official from another institution;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned.

WE LOOK FOR:

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA³

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. Be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State. In exceptional cases and after having exhausted the possibilities to recruit from the above categories, the EEAS may examine, pursuant to Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR, applications from candidates from other public entities of the Member States whose professional experience at the national level is directly relevant to the core tasks of this position. EPSO competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1) of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR.
2. Have the capacity to work in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. Have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations;

³ All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications for this post.

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12, or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR, or occupy an AST post and be on the list drawn up according to Article 45a(c) of the SR (certification list).
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, applications from staff members currently serving in a Delegation are not eligible unless they are included in the rotation or mobility exercises and if the day for submitting the applications for the vacancy notice is less than six months from the end of their ongoing posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service or in duly justified situations.
3. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs⁴ (hereafter, the “MFA”) containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the Member States, point 2(a)).

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1) of the SR

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁵.
2. Have gained at least 6 years’ full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the MFA of their Member State of origin, which contains at least the following elements:

⁴ Notwithstanding national terminology that may vary from one Member State to another.

⁵ The minimum of one year of professional experience required under (b) counts as an integral part of the above qualification and cannot be included in the professional experience required under point 2.

- a. for candidates to be recruited under Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS:
- the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;
 - endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50b(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

- b. for candidates to be recruited under Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(b) of the CEOS:
- the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in a public entity of their Member State of origin (other than the MFA) at the time of application, either as an official or under a permanent employment relationship;
 - endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement in their parent administration at the end of their period of service with the EEAS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex II of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Furthermore, candidates who would be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should:

- have an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication in a complex, multicultural environment;
- have an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organisations and the Member States;
- have strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- have experience and good knowledge of CFSP and CSDP-related issues;
- have practical experience in planning at strategic level at national or international level;
- have experience of working in military and /or civilian missions/operations at field and/or at headquarters level, including in an international organisation;
- have acquired, through field deployments, a thorough understanding of political dimensions of crisis management;

- be able to work very flexibly to meet the needs of crisis management, including participation in long-term missions, possibly to high-risk areas.

Furthermore:

- experience of working in an Embassy, a Delegation (or equivalent in an international organisation);
- experience of working in a team in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment;
- experience of negotiations.

would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed under Article 2(e) of the CEOS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that he/she is physically fit to perform the duties.

As regards candidates who applied under Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR (i.e. candidates from the national diplomatic services), the successful candidate will be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August each year). The contract of successful candidates who are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS will be amended and renewed for a 4 year period, within the limits provided for by Article 50b(2) of the CEOS.

As regards candidates who applied under Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR (i.e. candidates from national public entities other than the diplomatic services), the successful candidate will be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS. Such contracts will have an initial duration of maximum 4 years, and can be renewed only once for a maximum of 2 additional years.

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels, Belgium

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁶.

A valid Personnel Security Clearance (PSC)⁷ allowing access to classified information, issued by the competent national authority in accordance with national laws and regulations, is mandatory at the moment of application in order to enter the selection process.

⁶ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

⁷ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

The selected candidate may still be required to obtain a new PSC for the present post in accordance with national laws and regulations and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN\(2019\)7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the new PSC is issued, the selected candidate may not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 3(3) of the Decision ADMIN\(2019\) 7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019.

Successful candidates from the Member States will be required to sign a conflict of interest form as part of the recruitment process.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact the functional mailbox (EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure with equal opportunities as other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1d(4) of the SR.

PROCEDURE⁸

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/eapplication/index.cfm>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the aforementioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the online system.

⁸ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.html

In case of connection problems, you can also refer to the complete EU Login user guide: https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/cas/manuals/EU_Login_Tutorial.pdf

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

Candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the online system.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 15 January 2024 at 12:00h (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter. The panel will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/Authority Authorised to Conclude Contracts of Employment that will make the final selection.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
