

DEADLINE EXTENDED

EUROPEAN EXTERNAL ACTION SERVICE (EEAS)

External Publication

Vacancy notice 2024/167 – HQ (AD)

Policy Officer in the Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (SECDEFPOL.1)

EU-Ukraine Defence Innovation Office

Type of post “Administrator”

Job no. 453354

Eligibility grade for EU officials: AD 5 – AD 12. Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 7

WE ARE

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the “EEAS”) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his/her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (hereafter, the “CFSP”), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in his/her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his/her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (SECDEFPOL.1) is responsible for leading and coordinating the EEAS' overall contribution and strategy in the area of security and defence. This includes work on strategic initiatives, such as the implementation of the Strategic Compass, the preparation and follow-up of Ministerial and other high-level meetings, as well as the development and implementation of specific policies, instruments and capabilities in the field of defence cooperation and civilian CSDP. The Division is also in charge of overseeing the overall EEAS contribution to the European Defence Industrial Strategy, including cooperation with the Ukrainian Defence Industrial Base.

WE PROPOSE

The post of a Policy Officer. The successful candidate will join the Strategy, Coordination and Policy Division (SECDEFPOL.1) in the Managing Directorate Security and Defence Policy (SDP). Under the responsibility of Head of Division, the selected candidate will assist in fulfilling the EU Defence Innovation Office in Kyiv’s mandate.

The main functions and duties of the post are as follows:

- to monitor, analyse and report on developments pertaining to defence innovation in Ukraine, as well as on the use of novel defence technologies in the country;
- to provide regular and timely reporting on the innovation activities of the Ukrainian defence industry to feed broader situational awareness in EU institutions, agencies and bodies;
- to represent the EU and act as a focal point with the Ukrainian authorities and industry in the field of defence innovation;
- to maintain close working relations with relevant defence innovation stakeholders,

- including from diplomatic representations, and regional/international organisations;
- to support information sharing on defence innovation between the EU and Ukrainian stakeholders, including on EU cooperation opportunities and financing options;
- to support joint and matchmaking initiatives between the EU innovation ecosystem and Ukrainian companies active in the field of defence innovation and R&D;
- to liaise and manage relations with the European Commission and the European Defence Agency, including to ensure good functioning of the Office.

This position is classified as an "Administrator" type of post¹ in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12.

If selected for the post, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States will be recruited at grade AD 7.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the "CEOS") applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States shall retain their current grade in case of selection for the post. If their grade is below the one set for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 7.

LEGAL BASIS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THIS POSITION

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) of the SR if he/she is an EU official;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State or reassigned if she/he is a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(b) of the SR if he/she is an EU official from another institution;
- in the alternative, if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned, recruited either in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR (competition laureates), or in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(b) of the CEOS (candidates coming from a national public entity other than the diplomatic service).

WE LOOK FOR

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA²:

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State; members of other national administrations of the Member States may also express interest as per the specific eligibility criteria;
2. have the capacity to work in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations.

¹ According to Annex I to the Staff Regulations and the relevant EEAS internal rules.

² All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

EPSO competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1) of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR.

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12, or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR, or occupy an AST post and be on the list drawn up according to Article 45(a)(c) of the SR (certification list).
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, applications from staff members currently serving in a Delegation are in principle not eligible unless they are included in the annual rotation or mobility exercises and if the day for submitting the applications for the vacancy notice is less than six months from the end of their ongoing posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service or in duly justified situations.
3. Due to the need to ensure business continuity, applications from EEAS staff members who have less than two years in their current post in Headquarters at the date of their submission are not eligible. They may only be considered in the interest of the service or in duly justified situations.
4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
5. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs³ (hereafter, the "MFA") containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States).

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from national diplomatic services of the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR

³ Notwithstanding national terminology that may vary from one Member State to another.

- b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁴.
2. Have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

3. The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin, which contains at least the following elements:
- the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;
 - endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Furthermore, candidates who would be recruited as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS must be in a position to serve during the full duration of their assignment within the maximum duration of engagement in the EEAS.

Candidates from the national diplomatic services of Member States, who have served continuously 8 or up to the maximum of 10 years as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS pursuant to Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS, are not eligible before a lapse of at least 2 years from the termination of their last contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS⁵.

- Possibility for staff members of other national services to express their interests for the post

In case no suitable candidate is found among the candidates being EU officials, coming from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, or being temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, the selection procedure for this post carried out on the basis of Article 29(1) and/or Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR would be deemed unsuccessful. In such situation, profiles of staff members coming from public national administrations of the Member States other than national diplomatic services may be exceptionally considered by the Authority Authorised to Conclude Contracts of Employment (hereafter, the "AACC").

Given the specific nature of this particular post and the specialised profile sought, national servants with such a profile are hereby already invited to express their interest in this position.

These candidates should meet points (2) and (3) of the general eligibility criteria, as set out above. In addition:

- (a) by analogy, they should meet the same specific eligibility criteria than the ones applicable for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States with regard to their level of education and professional experience; and
- (b) they shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national administration of origin at the time of their application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with this administration;
 - endorsement by the national diplomatic service of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement in their national administration of origin after the end of their period of service with the EEAS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex II of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the national diplomatic service of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

If selected for the post, the candidate would be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

Candidates should have:

- an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organizations and EU Member States;
- strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- have an excellent ability to ensure excellent coordination, communication in a complex, multicultural environment, working within a diverse team;
- experience and knowledge of CFSP;
- have 5 years of experience in working on CSDP issues;

Furthermore:

- experience in working with defence industry and/or innovation topics;
- working knowledge of Ukrainian or Russian language;

would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

The successful candidate will be offered a temporary contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August of each year). The contract of successful candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS will be amended and renewed for a maximum 4 year period, within the limits provided for by Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS.

In case no suitable candidate is found among the EU officials or members of national diplomatic services who applied for this post and if, subsequently, after taking into consideration the expressions of interests of members of other national administrations, the AACC found a suitable profile among them, the latter would be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration and can be renewed only once for a 2 years period, in accordance with Article 8, second indent, of the CEOS.

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

PLACE OF EMPLOYMENT

Brussels, Belgium

SPECIFIC CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

- If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed in the EEAS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that he/she is physically fit to perform the duties.
- The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁶.

Given the specific role of the INTCEN and the sensitive nature of the tasks pertaining to the offered position which requires candidates to have already gained an experience in handling EUCI documents, a valid Personnel Security Clearance (PSC)⁷ issued by the competent authority of their Member State in accordance with national laws and regulations is mandatory at the moment of application in order to enter the selection process.

The selected candidate may still be required to obtain a new PSC for the present post in accordance with national laws and regulations of his or her Member State and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN\(2019\)7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the new PSC is issued, the selected candidate may not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

⁶ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

⁷ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 3(3) of the Decision ADMIN\(2019\) 7 on Security Clearance Requirements and Procedures for the EEAS of 08 March 2019.

- Successful candidates from the national diplomatic services or from other national services of the Member States will be required to sign a conflict of interest form as part of the recruitment process.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its employees and applicants for employment. As an employer, the EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact the functional mailbox (EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu) in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure with equal opportunities as other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1(d)(4) of the SR.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE⁸

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://eapplication.eeas.europa.eu>

To log on to the system, an ECAS (European Commission Authentication Service) password is required; candidates without a password can register to get one through the aforementioned link. EU staff members with a professional ECAS account should use that account for their application. A helpdesk facility is available via the "Contact Support" function within the online system.

In case of connection problems, you can also refer to the complete EU Login user guide: https://webgate.ec.europa.eu/cas/manuals/EU_Login_Tutorial.pdf

⁸ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on EEAS webpage: http://eeas.europa.eu/data_protection/rights/index_en.html

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

Candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the online system.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 19 December 2024 at 12:00 (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible. Late applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter. The panel will produce a shortlist of a limited number of eligible candidates who best meet the selection criteria for the post.

3. Selection

The candidates who have been shortlisted will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/AACC that will make the final selection.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.
