

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Directorate for Policy Planning and Strategic Communication

Information and Communication Officer (Asia Pacific)

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job No 445255

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Directorate for Policy Planning and Strategic Communication supports the High Representative-Vice President of the European Commission (HRVP) and the European External Action Service (EEAS) in implementing the EU common foreign, security and defence policies, by providing strategic analysis, foresight as well as communication advice and support, including through closing space for Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference (FIMI) building resilience against it. The Directorate develops Strategic Communication and Public Diplomacy activities across a wide range of geographic and thematic topics and works in close cooperation with EU Delegations, Member States, international partners and relevant services from other EU institutions.

Within the Directorate, the Division "Strategic Communication regional teams and coordination of Task Forces" (STRAT.3) provides strategic communication support in the implementation of EU foreign and security policy in Europe and the Western Balkans, Eastern Europe and Central Asia, Middle East and North Africa, Sub Saharan Africa, Americas and Asia Pacific. The Division develops and implements specific strategic communication actions focused on advancing EU policies, values and interests. The Division also conducts awareness raising campaigns about the harmful impact of disinformation and contributes to the development of effective policy responses in the EU and at the international level. The Division - and the geographic Task Forces it coordinates - contribute to effective and fact-based strategic communication and the strengthening of the overall media environment and civil society in the regions it covers.

We propose:

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert on the position of an Information and Communication Officer in the Directorate for Policy Planning and Strategic Communication. The successful candidate will join the Division STRAT.3 - Strategic Communication Regional Teams and Coordination of Task Forces.

The expert will support overall EU efforts to strengthen strategic communication efforts. She/he will contribute to EU strategic communication efforts towards the Asia Pacific, with a particular focus on the Indo-Pacific region, and produce analysis of the information environment and Foreign Information Manipulation and Interference in the various countries to help design and enhance Strategic Communications in the region.

The expert will be required to work in close coordination with the relevant divisions of the EEAS, the European Commission, the Council, the Parliament, the EU Delegations, the Spokespersons Service, EU MS representatives and the expert community in the priority regions, as well as external contractors and other relevant networks.

Functions and Duties:

Under the authority of the Head of Division, the Seconded National Expert is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Contribute to delivering strategic communication in support of the HRVP and the EU Foreign Policy in close cooperation with EU Delegations in the region and other EU institutions in HQ.
- Contribute strategic advice to the EEAS, in particular the Asia Pacific Department, on communication strategies towards audiences in the region ;
- Analyse the information environment of countries in Asia Pacific including actors, channels, and narratives;
- Design and develop support activities, including training and coaching, for EU Delegations and Member States Embassies in the region, in order to increase their capacity to analyse their overall communication environment as well as to detect and analysis potential threats coming from disinformation and foreign manipulative interference;
- Contribute to the design and implementation of communication campaigns, projects and capacity building initiatives to achieve EU communications objectives for Asia Pacific through strategic communication and public diplomacy;
- Engage with relevant stakeholders and target groups in the EU and in Asia Pacific – in cooperation with the EU Delegations - to build trust and understanding on the EU and on the approach and objectives of EU strategic communications and public diplomacy efforts.
- Contribute to shaping and implementing communication activities around high-level missions and summits with EU leaders, together with other stakeholders (Council, Commission, Spokesperson's Service), related to Asia Pacific and the Indo-Pacific;
- Contribute to support EU Delegations on communication, press and public diplomacy activities including by organizing and participating in the regular regional conference calls, communication training and regional seminars.
- Work together with relevant EU Institutions, Services and bodies on strategic medium-long term communication activities and campaigns, and representing the Division in relevant internal and external meetings;
- Contribute to developing projects aiming to bolster the EU's perception and to reduce the harmful impacts and build resilience against FIMI (media literacy, media support, awareness raising, situational awareness capacity building for civil society organisations).
- Provide briefing notes, reports, assessments, analysis, draft policy decisions/suggestions in the area of geographical competence.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with strong analytical and networking skills to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE).
