AD level post

Job No 373110

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert on the position of Policy Officer for Black Sea, back-up for on Barents and Baltic Sea files

The successful candidate will join the Division EURCA.EAST.5 (Enlargement and Regional Cooperation). The Division coordinates enlargement work in the EURCA area and deals with regional policies in the Eastern neighbourhood. This includes the Eastern Partnership, the implementation of the Black Sea policy, OSCE, the Council of the Baltic Sea States and the Barents Euro-Arctic Council. The Division also coordinates thematic files for the department, such as regional programming.

Functions and Duties:

Under the authority of the Head and Deputy Head of Division, the Seconded National Expert is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Contribute to implementation of the Joint Communication on a new approach to the Black Sea.
- Help prepare and take part in the discussions with EEAS and Commission services as well as EU Member States and third countries on the Black Sea.
- Present EU policies on the Black Sea in conferences and other public events.
- Contribute to the planning for the future development of the EU Black Sea policy.
- Provide briefing notes, reports, assessments, analysis, draft policy decisions/suggestions in the areas of responsibility.
- Provide back-up on files related to the Council of the Baltic Sea States and the Barents Euro-Arctic Council

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with strong analytical and networking skills to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE).

The candidate should have a good understanding of EU policy-making and decision-making processes, and an understanding of inter-institutional relations as well as have relevant political experience in the proposed areas. The candidate will be working in a friendly and dynamic environment and contribute to the work of EURCA. He/she will have to work in an international and multicultural environment in close synergy with Member States and EU institutions.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation from other sources;
- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level.¹;
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his/her duties;
- d) Have a security clearance of minimum level EU-SECRET/SECRET-UE for the functions that he/she will carry out;
- e) Remain in the service of the employer throughout the period of secondment and shall be paid by that employer;
- f) Remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs the SNE and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad. In case of posting to an EU Delegation, the employer certifies that the SNE is covered for medical expenses incurred at the place of secondment, as well as costs of repatriation on health grounds throughout the full period of secondment;
- g) Ensure that there is no conflict of interest and that he/she will, at all times, safeguard the independence and coherence of EU foreign policy as well as the integrity and confidentiality of EU documentation, information and procedures.
