Vacancy Notice 2026/057 – HQ (AD) Chair of the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management (CIVCOM) in MD-PSD, Peace, Security and Defence

Type of post “Head of Unit or equivalent”

Job no. 313435

Eligibility grade for EU officials and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 9 – AD 14. Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States¹: AD 11

WE ARE

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the “EEAS”) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (hereafter, the “CFSP”), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

On behalf of the HR/VP, the Chair of the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management (CIVCOM) shall ensure the smooth running of the Working Party in accordance with the Council rules of procedure and the mandate of the Committee.

CIVCOM advises the Political and Security Committee (PSC) on civilian aspects of crisis management. The role of the Committee is to: prepare advice and planning documents for civilian CSDP missions and monitor their effective implementation; make relevant recommendations to the Political and Security Committee and contribute to the development and implementation of strategies for civilian crisis management and for civilian capabilities.

The CIVCOM Chair is under the authority of the Managing Director for PSD. The new Chair will have a responsibility for the good management of CIVCOM’s work and will ensure that the views of the Working Party are taken into full account in EEAS policy formulation. The new colleague will also work under the guidance of the Chair of the PSC as concerns the planning, processing and substance of dossiers going through the PSC and Coreper/Foreign Affairs Council. The new colleague will be fully associated in the work of the CSDP services of the EEAS.

WE PROPOSE

The post of Chair of the CIVCOM Working Party on Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management.

Under the authority of the Managing Director, the successful candidate will:

- chair the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management (CIVCOM);
- assist the Political and Security Committee (PSC) Chair in meetings of PSC on relevant topics and liaise with Member States to prepare PSC meetings;
- support and advise the Managing Director for Peace, Security and Defence (MD PSD) and the Chair of the PSC on all aspects related to civilian crisis management and conflict prevention;
- ensure that the Committee's views are taken into account in relevant EEAS policy formulation;
- contribute to coordination as concerns planning, processing and substance of dossiers going through the PSC and Foreign Affairs Council (FAC)/Committee of the Permanent Representatives of the Governments of the Member States to the European Union (COREPER);
- contribute to the elaboration of existing and new EU policies relevant to the area of civilian CSDP;
- contribute to the definition of and elaboration of EEAS positions in external action;
- contribute to the implementation of the EU integrated approach to crisis at the EEAS HQ's level;
- ensure effective planning and implementation of CIVCOM activities;
- liaise with relevant EEAS/Council Working Groups (e.g. EUMC, PMG, RELEX, COSI SG), the PSC as well as with EU Delegations in particular in multilateral posts and represent the EEAS accordingly;
- represent the EEAS as appropriate in external and internal events relevant to the CIVCOM activities, in particular in dialogues and consultations with 3rd countries as well as in multilateral meetings and negotiations;
- co-ordinate with EEAS Directorates, in particular CPCC, SECDEFPOL and PCM, in the area of civilian crisis management as well as with the Security Policy Department in the area of conflict prevention.

This position is classified as a "Head of Unit or equivalent" type of post² in the grade bracket AD 9 – AD 14.

In case of selection for the post, EU officials at AD 9 – AD 14 shall retain their current grade. EU officials at AD 8 will be promoted to grade AD 9.

If selected for the post, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States) will be recruited at grade AD 11.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the "CEOS") applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States shall retain their current grade in case of selection for the post. If their grade is below the one set for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 11.

Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS should be in a position to serve during the full duration of the assignment of the post, which is in principle four years, within the limits provided for by Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS³.

² According to Annex I to the Staff Regulations and the relevant EEAS internal rules.

³ Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

PLACE and DATE OF EMPLOYMENT

EEAS Headquarters, Brussels, Belgium

Post available: 01/09/2026

LEGAL BASIS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THIS POSITION

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) or Article 29(1)(b) of the Staff Regulations (hereafter, the “SR”) if they are an EU official;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State or reassigned if they are a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR (competition laureates) if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned.

WE LOOK FOR

Eligibility Criteria⁴

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. Be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State.
2. Have the capacity to work in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. Have at least 6 years proven, pertinent experience in external relations.

EPSO and EEAS internal competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR;

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 9 – AD 14 or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR. EU officials at AD 8 are eligible to apply if they have at least 2 years seniority in that grade.
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, candidates currently serving in a Delegation will be eligible only if the deadline for applications is less than six months from the end of their current posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service.
3. Due to the need to ensure business continuity, applications from candidates who have less than two years in their current post in Headquarters at the date of their application are not eligible. Their application may only be considered in the interest of the service.

4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents. In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
5. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.
6. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs⁵ (hereafter, the "MFA") containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the Member States).
7. Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must also fulfil the general eligibility criteria, as well as the specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the Member States.

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁶.
2. Have gained at least 12 years full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

3. The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin⁷, which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and

⁷ See corresponding certificate annexed to the present vacancy notice

- are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;
- endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
- a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50b(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Candidates must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment within the duration of their service with the EEAS or before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.

Candidates from the national diplomatic services of Member States, who have served continuously 8 or up to the maximum of 10 years as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS pursuant to Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS, are not eligible before a lapse of at least 2 years from the termination of their last contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS⁸.

Selection Criteria:

Candidates should have:

- an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- an excellent capacity to lead negotiations and to create constructive working relations with national authorities, international organisations and EU Member States;
- a proven capacity to synthesise, forge compromises and lead colleagues towards operational conclusions;
- excellent knowledge of external relations, internal policies and functioning of the Union;
- experience and knowledge of CFSP and CSDP-related issues;
- knowledge and/or proven experience in the key policy areas addressed by the CIVCOM Working Party;
- strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- interpersonal skills and capacity for effective teamwork and close cooperation with hierarchy;
- ability to coordinate and work collaboratively with other Divisions in HQ and Delegations as well as with other EU institutions, particularly European Commission services;
- capacity for the flexibility and resilience required by the nature of the CIVCOM Working Party;
- experience in CIVCOM or other relevant Council preparatory body;
- a good working knowledge of English and French.

Furthermore:

- experience of working in an Embassy, a Delegation (or equivalent in an international organisation);
- experience of working in a team in multi-disciplinary and multi-cultural environment;

⁸ Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

- experience of negotiations;
would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

The successful candidate will be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of annual Mobility exercise at Headquarters (currently 31 August each year).

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

CONDITIONS OF RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND SECURITY RISKS

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post. The EEAS also examines if there could be a conflict of interest or security risks.

In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex II).

MEDICAL CLEARANCE

If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed under Article 2(e) of the CEOS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that he/she is physically fit to perform the duties.

PERSONNEL SECURITY CLEARANCE

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁹.

The selected candidate should hold, or be in the position to obtain, a valid Personnel Security Clearance (hereafter, the "PSC")¹⁰ issued by the competent authority of the Member State concerned.

Candidates who do not already have a valid PSC will be required to go through the security clearance vetting procedure of their Member State to obtain this clearance in accordance with national laws and regulations and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN\(2025\) 42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the PSC is issued by the competent authority of the Member State concerned, the selected candidate will not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

⁹ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

¹⁰ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 7 of the Decision ADMIN\(2025\) 42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS strives to be a dynamic, respectful and inclusive Service. We value the talent and professional excellence of our staff, and are committed to building an organisation where gender equality and the respect of diversity are core values, as set out in the EEAS Mission Statement and the EEAS Agenda for Diversity and Inclusion. The EEAS is committed to achieving gender balance within its workforce and strives to avoid any form of discrimination during this selection procedure, as per Article 1(d) of the SR. We actively welcome applications from all qualified candidates without any discrimination based on any ground. We commit to recruit candidates with the highest standard of ability, efficiency and integrity, carrying out a selection based on merits required for the post and from the broadest possible geographical basis among the EU Member States.

The EEAS is committed to working with people with disabilities in the terms of the SR. If, by virtue of your medical condition or special needs, you require reasonable accommodation for a part or the entirety of this selection process, please send us an email to EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu. Your request will be treated in strict confidence and no record will be kept. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Article 1(d)(4) of the SR.

All selected candidates are expected to adhere to the Principles of Professional Behaviour of the EEAS, which outline the need for integrity, transparency, respect, professionalism and accountability, and a zero tolerance approach to any form of harassment.

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE¹¹

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://eapplication.eeas.europa.eu>

To log on to the system, an EU Login password is required. Candidates without an account can register through the afore-mentioned link or here: https://trusted-digital-identity.europa.eu/index_en. Current EU staff members with a corporate EU Login account should use that account for their application. In case of technical issues, you may refer to the EU Login user portal for further assistance or use the helpdesk facility via the "Contact Support" function.

¹¹ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on the EEAS Intranet: https://www.eeas.europa.eu/eeas/eeas-privacy-statement-data-protection-notice-purpose-processing-personal-data-related-recruitment-0_en

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV and motivation letter (in English or French) and the declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex II). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

Candidates will have the opportunity to follow the progress of their application through the online system.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 6 May 2026 at 12:00 (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible.

Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter.

3. Selection

The pre-selected candidates who best meet the selection criteria will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/Authority Authorised to Conclude Contracts of Employment (hereinafter, the "AACC") that will make the final selection. If appropriate, the relevant Director, Managing Director or other senior manager of the recruiting division may conduct confirmatory interviews, prior to the final selection by the Appointing Authority/AACC.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.

If the successful candidate accepts the position, they will be expected to take up duties on the post. Consequently, their applications to other vacant posts within the EEAS will only be considered after two years on the post. Derogations may be granted in the interest of the service.

ANNEX II

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

Article 11(3) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union (SR):

“Before recruiting an official, the Appointing Authority shall examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the candidate, using a specific form, shall inform the appointing authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest. In such cases, the Appointing Authority shall take this into account in a duly reasoned opinion. If necessary, the Appointing Authority shall take measures referred to in Article 11a(2)”.

Article 11a(2) of the SR:

“Any official to whom it falls, in the performance of his duties, to deal with a matter referred to above shall immediately inform the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall take any appropriate measure, and may in particular relieve the official from responsibility in this matter”.

These provisions apply to temporary agents in accordance with Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

It is the candidates’ duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the recruitment and, if not, whether they should call for adequate mitigating measures to protect both the interests of the institution and of the selected candidate.
