Vacancy Notice 2026/080– HQ (AD) Two Team Leaders in the Field Security Division (GII.CRC.3)

Type of post “Administrator”

Job no. 299568, 337008

(Eligibility grade for EU officials and current temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS: AD 5 – AD 12 / Grade of recruitment for candidates from the Member States¹: AD 7)

WE ARE

The European External Action Service (hereafter, the “EEAS”) supports the High Representative in the exercise of her mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (hereafter, the “CFSP”), to represent the EU and to chair the Foreign Affairs Council.

It also supports the High Representative in her capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to her responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU’s external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the EU Member States as well as the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The EEAS Field Security Division (EEAS GII.CRC.3) is part of the EEAS Crisis Response Centre (CRC). The CRC has a permanent crisis response capability and is the single entry point on all crisis related issues in the EEAS, bringing together diplomatic, security and intelligence capabilities, and ensuring a close interaction between Delegations, Missions and Operations on the ground when facing a consular or security crisis.

The EEAS GII.CRC.3 Division is a dynamic team, responsible for providing security advice and support to EU Delegations worldwide, enabling their work and assisting with the fulfilment of the legal duty of care obligation towards the EEAS staff and eligible dependents, assets and information. The Division has three sectors: Operations, Resources & Logistics and Strategy. The Operations sector provides the link between HQ and field operations, including the Regional Security Officers/Adviser (RSO/A) network. The Resources and Logistics Sector carries out oversight of the budget lines for Security services contracts worldwide (security static guarding and close protection), coordinates on all security contract tenders, manages the procurement and maintenance of armoured vehicles, personal protective equipment, radio-communications networks, the Division’s human resources (including RSO/A network recruitment and rotation), and is involved in all security related financial, budgetary, legal and audit matters. The Strategy Sector is responsible for the drafting of policies, training of Security Management Teams, security

e-learning tools, training of RSO/As, Service Level Arrangements and the content of Hostile Environment Awareness Training courses.

WE PROPOSE

Two posts of Team Leader within the EEAS GII.CRC.3 Operations Sector. Each Team Leader in the Operations Sector (there are five in total) is responsible for a geographical area, supporting the Head of Operations in the command, coordination and control of the work performed by the network of RSO/As deployed in their area of responsibility and the Desk Officers assigned to their team in HQ. An average team is composed by one or two Desk Officers in HQ, serving around 30 Delegations with the support of 15 RSO/As.

The position is classified as an "Administrator" type of post² in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12.

If selected for the post, candidates from the Member States will be recruited at grade AD 7.

Current EEAS temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants (hereafter, the "CEOS") applies and who have a higher grade than the one determined above for candidates from the Member States shall retain their current grade if they are selected for the post. If their grade is below the one set for candidates from the Member States, they will be reclassified at grade AD 7.

Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS currently employed in the EEAS should be in a position to serve during the full duration of the assignment of the post, which is in principle four years, within the limits provided for by Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS³.

PLACE and DATE OF EMPLOYMENT

EEAS Headquarters, Brussels, Belgium

Post available: one immediately; one on 1 September 2026

LEGAL BASIS FOR RECRUITMENT TO THIS POSITION

The successful candidate for this position will be:

- appointed in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) or 29(1)(b) of the Staff Regulations (hereafter, the "SR") if they are an EU official;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first subparagraph of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from the national diplomatic service of a Member State or reassigned if they are a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies;
- in the alternative, if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), second subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(b) of the CEOS if the candidate comes from a national administration other than the diplomatic service of a Member State;
- recruited in accordance with Article 29(1)(c) of the SR (competition laureates), if it was not possible to fill the vacant post through any of the previous possibilities mentioned.

² According to Annex I to the Staff Regulations and the relevant EEAS internal rules.

³ Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

WE LOOK FOR

Under the authority of the Head of Division, and the direct supervision of the Head of Operations, the successful candidate will have:

- To ensure effective leadership of the Team assigned in the Operations Sector.
- To maintain interactive communications so that staff members are informed on all relevant policy and strategic aspects affecting the Team's work and receive appropriate feedback on their actions.
- To monitor and supervise the application of the EEAS Security Risk Management methodology by the RSO/As, to provide support where necessary.
- To conduct field visits to assess the pertinence of EEAS security risk management strategy and to assess the security set up of the Delegation.
- To serve as "entry" point within the EEAS on security management topics for the Geographical Area of Responsibility.
- To assist the hierarchy in responses to crisis situations.
- To respond to briefing requests from hierarchy concerning security related issues and security measures.
- To participate in meetings pertinent to security matters in the Geographical Area of Responsibility.
- To liaise and cooperate, when required, with other Institutions and/or stakeholders in the framework of security matters in the Geographical Area of Responsibility, in particular with those of the EU Member States, EU institutions, EU agencies, and CSDP military and civilian missions and operations.
- To contribute to different trainings and/or seminars to speak about security management matters.
- To deliver security training / awareness briefings and drafting of ad hoc reports as requested by the hierarchy.
- To contribute to the development and maintenance of the training needs of the RSO/As.

Eligibility Criteria⁴:

- General

In addition to the conditions set out in Article 28 of the SR for EU officials or in Article 12 of the CEOS for temporary agents, candidates must:

1. be an EU official, a temporary agent to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies or a member of staff from the national diplomatic service of a Member State; members of other national administrations of the Member States may also express interest as per the specific eligibility criteria;
2. have the capacity to work in the languages of the CFSP and external relations (English and French);
3. have at least 2 years' proven, pertinent experience in external relations.

EPSO and EEAS internal competition laureates who are on a valid reserve list established in accordance with Article 30 of the SR may have their applications considered only in the event that no suitable candidate can be found among candidates covered by Article 29(1)(a) and Article 98(1), first and second subparagraphs, of the SR, or by Article 29(1)(b) of the SR.

- Specific eligibility criteria for EU officials and temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies

⁴ All the eligibility criteria must be met on the closing date for applications to this post.

1. EU officials or temporary staff to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must occupy a post in the grade bracket AD 5 – AD 12, or have occupied such a post before their change in administrative status in accordance with Article 35 of the SR, or occupy an AST post and be on the list drawn up according to Article 45(a)(c) of the SR (certification list).
2. Due to the need to ensure sound financial management of the limited financial resources and given the fact that the assignment of a staff member to a Delegation has important budgetary and business continuity implications, candidates currently serving in a Delegation will be eligible only if the deadline for applications is less than six months from the end of their current posting. Other applications may only be considered in the interest of the service.
3. Due to the need to ensure business continuity, applications from candidates who have spent less than two years in their current post in Headquarters at the date of their application are not eligible. Their application may only be considered in the interest of the service.
4. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are EU officials, independently of their administrative status under Article 35 of the SR, cannot request to be recruited as temporary agents. In the case of applications from EU officials on leave for personal grounds, successful candidates will be reinstated into active employment within the meaning of Article 35(a) of the SR.
5. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.
6. Candidates who, at the time of the application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must provide a new certificate issued by their Ministry of Foreign Affairs⁵ (hereafter, the "MFA") containing the same elements as requested for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States (see specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States).
7. Candidates who, at the time of their application, are temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, must also fulfil the general eligibility criteria, as well as the specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the Member States.

- Specific eligibility criteria for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States to be recruited in accordance with Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR and Article 2(e) of the CEOS

In line with Article 12 of the CEOS and in accordance with the needs of the service, candidates from national diplomatic services of the Member States must:

1. Possess a level of education:
 - a. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more; OR
 - b. which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and relevant professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years⁶.

⁵ Notwithstanding national terminology that may vary from one Member State to another.

⁶ The minimum of one year of professional experience required under (b) counts as an integral part of the above qualification and cannot be included in the professional experience required under point 2.

2. Have gained at least 6 years' full time professional experience. This experience must have been gained after obtaining the four-year diploma or after obtaining the three-year diploma and the one year relevant professional experience.

Candidates must indicate their level of education and professional experience on the application form.

3. The candidates shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin, which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national diplomatic service at the time of the application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with the MFA; or that they have the same status/employment relationship at another national administration of their Member State and are on formal secondment to their MFA or an entity placed under the authority of the MFA such as an embassy, a permanent representation or a mission of the Member State accredited to an international organisation;
 - endorsement by the MFA of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement at the end of their period of service with the EEAS, as required under Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex I of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the MFA of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

Candidates must be in a position to serve the full duration of the assignment within the duration of their service with the EEAS or before reaching the age of retirement foreseen under Article 52(a) of the SR, applicable to temporary agents by virtue of Article 47(a) of the CEOS.

Candidates from the national diplomatic services of Member States, who have served continuously 8 or up to the maximum of 10 years as temporary agents under Article 2(e) of the CEOS pursuant to Article 50(b)(2) of the CEOS, are not eligible before a lapse of at least 2 years from the termination of their last contract under Article 2(e) of the CEOS⁷.

- Possibility for staff members of national administration other than national diplomatic services to express their interests for the post

In case no suitable candidate is found among the candidates being EU officials, coming from the national diplomatic services of the Member States or being temporary agents to whom Article 2(e) of the CEOS applies, the selection procedure for this post carried out on the basis of Article 29(1) and/or Article 98(1), first subparagraph, of the SR would be deemed unsuccessful. In such situation, profiles of staff members coming from public national administrations of the Member States other than national diplomatic services may be exceptionally considered by the Authority Authorised to Conclude Contracts of Employment (hereafter, the "AACC").

Given the specific nature of this particular post and the specialised profile sought, candidates with such a profile are hereby invited to express their interest in this position.

⁷ Decision ADMIN(2023) 24 on the maximum duration of engagement by the European External Action Service of non-permanent staff under successive limited duration contracts of different types, and on the minimum lapse of time between successive contracts under Article 2(e) of the CEOS.

These candidates should meet points (2) and (3) of the general eligibility criteria, as set out above. In addition:

- (a) By analogy, they should meet the same specific eligibility criteria than the ones applicable for candidates from the national diplomatic services of the Member States with regard to their level of education and professional experience; and
- (b) They shall provide a certificate issued by the national diplomatic service/MFA of their Member State of origin which contains at least the following elements:
 - the post for which the candidate applies;
 - confirmation that the candidate is a staff member in active service in their national administration of origin at the time of their application, either as a government official/civil servant or under a permanent employment relationship with this administration;
 - endorsement by the national diplomatic service of their application for the post;
 - a guarantee of immediate reinstatement in their national administration of origin after the end of their period of service with the EEAS.

Model of the abovementioned certificate is provided in Annex II of this vacancy notice.

If candidates are unable to provide this document from the national diplomatic service of their Member State of origin, their application will be deemed ineligible.

If selected for the post, the candidate would be recruited as a temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS.

Selection Criteria:

Candidates should have:

- an excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- an excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with national authorities, civil society, international organisations and EU Member States;
- strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- excellent knowledge of the EU's internal and external policies and instruments, and of the functioning of the Union and its inter-institutional framework;
- experience and knowledge of CFSP and CSDP;
- at least ten years of full-time relevant professional management / coordination experience in Law Enforcement, Military, or Intelligence Services of EU Member States, as a Commissioned Officer or equivalent;
- relevant background in Law Enforcement, Military or Intelligence Services, having followed specialisation courses, and having served in operational Units;
- at least two years of full-time, relevant professional experience in the management and/or coordination of security matters, gained while working for Embassies of EU Member States, EU Delegations, EU Institutions or Agencies, EU civilian or military missions or operations, and/or international or intergovernmental organisations;
- strong theoretical knowledge of Security Operations Management, Risk Management, Crisis Management, and Business Continuity Management;
- relevant field experience in Security Operations, Risk Management, Crisis Management, and Business Continuity Management, acquired through operational deployments or missions conducted by the candidate's national authorities or by an international or intergovernmental organisation. Field experience in the Geographical Area of Responsibility will be considered an asset;

- professional management experience in Private Security Companies (i.e.: performing security-related tasks) will be considered strong assets only when criteria related to the required background in Law Enforcement, Military or Intelligence Services, and in diplomatic security matters are met;
- relevant civilian certifications, trainings and/or formal university education related to the management of Security and/or Defense activities will be considered strong assets only when criteria related to the required background in Law Enforcement, Military or Intelligence Services, and in diplomatic security matters are met;

Furthermore:

- excellent problem-solving and organisational skills;
- excellent verbal communication skills, being able to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation, communication and management in a complex, multicultural environment;
- excellent drafting and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- proven ability to work in high-pressure and intense environments;
- proven ability to work in multi-cultural environments and to lead multi-disciplinary teams;
- ability to communicate in the languages stated in the application form;
- be physically and psychologically fit for purpose and able to perform long-term missions to countries under critical threat levels;
- solid knowledge of the EU's internal and external policies and instruments, of the functioning of the Union and its inter-institutional framework, and of EU Crisis management policy and architecture, would be considered assets.

TYPE AND DURATION OF CONTRACT FOR NEW TEMPORARY AGENTS

The successful candidate will be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(e) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration; their expiry will as far as possible be aligned with the usual date of mobility at Headquarters (currently 31 August of each year).

In case no suitable candidate is found among the EU officials or members of national diplomatic services who applied for this post and if, subsequently, after taking into consideration the expressions of interests of members of other national administrations, the AACC found a suitable profile among them, the latter would be offered a contract of temporary agent under Article 2(b) of the CEOS. Such contracts may not exceed 4 years in duration and can be renewed only once for a 2-year period, in accordance with Article 8, second indent, of the CEOS.

All newly engaged temporary staff will be required to complete a probationary period of 9 months, in accordance with Article 14 of the CEOS.

CONDITIONS OF RECRUITMENT AND EMPLOYMENT

CONFLICT OF INTEREST AND SECURITY RISKS

As a matter of policy, applications by individuals who have dual nationality of which one of a non-EU country, will be considered on a case-by-case basis taking account in particular of the functions attributed to the vacant post. The EEAS also examines if there could be a conflict of interest or security risks.

In this context, all candidates shall fill with their application a declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex III).

MEDICAL CLEARANCE

If the successful candidate is not an EU official or a temporary agent currently employed in the EEAS, he/she will be required to undergo a medical examination to ensure that the candidate is physically fit to perform the duties.

PERSONNEL SECURITY CLEARANCE

The requested level of security clearance for this post is: SECRET UE/EU SECRET. A description of the EU classified information levels is available under Article 2 of Annex A of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS⁸.

A valid Personnel Security Clearance (hereafter, the "PSC")⁹ allowing access to classified information, issued by the competent national authority in accordance with national laws and regulations, is mandatory at the moment of application in order to enter the selection process.

The selected candidate may still be required to obtain a new PSC for the present post in accordance with national laws and regulations and with the procedure laid down in the Decision ADMIN\(2025\) 42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025 and in Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN\(2023\) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS. Until the new PSC is issued, the selected candidate may not be authorised to access EUCI at the level of CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above, or to participate in any meetings or workflow where EUCI is processed.

Please note that the necessary procedure for obtaining a PSC can be initiated on request of the employer only, and not by the individual candidate.

In case of failure to obtain or renew the required PSC, the AACC may take the appropriate measures in accordance with Article 7 of the Decision ADMIN\(2025\) 42 on Implementing Rules and Procedures for Personnel Security measures for protection of EU Classified Information of 20 November 2025.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

The EEAS strives to be a dynamic, respectful and inclusive Service. We value the talent and professional excellence of our staff, and are committed to building an organisation where gender equality and the respect of diversity are core values, as set out in the EEAS Mission Statement and the EEAS Agenda for Diversity and Inclusion. The EEAS is committed to achieving gender balance within its workforce and strives to avoid any form of discrimination during this selection procedure, as per Article 1(d) of the SR. We actively welcome applications from all qualified candidates without any discrimination based on any ground. We commit to recruit candidates with the highest standard of ability, efficiency and integrity, carrying out a selection based on merits required for the post and from the broadest possible geographical basis among the EU Member States.

⁸ OJ C 263, 26 July 2023, p.16.

⁹ The 'Personnel Security Clearance' is defined under point 2 of Annex A I of the Decision ADMIN(2023) 18 on the security rules of the EEAS as "a statement by a competent authority of a Member State which is made following completion of a security investigation conducted by the competent authorities of a Member State and which certifies that an individual may, provided his 'need-to-know' has been determined, be granted access to EUCI up to a specified level (CONFIDENTIEL UE/EU CONFIDENTIAL or above) until a specified date; the individual thus described is said to be 'security cleared'."

The EEAS is committed to working with people with disabilities in the terms of the SR. If, by virtue of your medical condition or special needs, you require reasonable accommodation for a part or the entirety of this selection process, please send us an email to EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu. Your request will be treated in strict confidence and no record will be kept. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Article 1(d)(4) of the SR.

All selected candidates are expected to adhere to the Principles of Professional Behaviour of the EEAS, which outline the need for integrity, transparency, respect, professionalism and accountability, and a zero tolerance approach to any form of harassment

APPLICATION AND SELECTION PROCEDURE¹⁰

The selection procedure will take place in three different and successive steps:

1. Application

Before submitting their application, candidates should carefully check whether they meet all the eligibility criteria applicable to their situation in order to avoid automatic exclusion from the selection procedure.

Candidates must apply through the online system:

<https://eapplication.eeas.europa.eu>

To log on to the system, an EU Login account is required. Candidates without an account can register through the afore-mentioned link or here: https://trusted-digital-identity.europa.eu/index_en. Current EU staff members with a corporate EU Login account should use that account for their application. In case of technical issues, you may refer to the EU Login user portal for further assistance or use the helpdesk facility via the "Contact Support" function.

During the online application procedure, candidates will have to upload their CV, motivation letter (in English or French) and the declaration of potential conflict of interest (Annex III). Candidates are invited to use the "Europass" CV format (<https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>) for their applications.

Candidates from the Member States will, in addition, have to upload a copy of their passport/ID and the certificate issued (within the past 6 months) by the MFA of their Member State of origin.

Only one application shall be submitted by candidate.

The closing date for the submission of applications is 15 June 2026 at 12:00 (CET - Brussels' time). Please note that the only way to submit an application is using the online system.

As the system may experience peak activity around the deadline, candidates are strongly advised to submit their application as early as possible.

¹⁰ Your personal data will be processed in accordance with Regulation (EC) 2018/1725. The privacy statement is available on the EEAS Intranet: https://www.eeas.europa.eu/eeas/eeas-privacy-statement-data-protection-notice-purpose-processing-personal-data-related-recruitment-0_en

Late or incomplete applications will not be accepted.

For correspondence concerning the selection procedures, please use the following email address: EEAS-HQ-APPLICATIONS-AD@eeas.europa.eu

2. Pre-selection

The pre-selection will be done by a panel on the basis of the qualifications and the professional experience described in the CV and motivation letter.

3. Selection

The pre-selected candidates who best meet the selection criteria will be invited for an interview so that the selection panel can evaluate them objectively and impartially on the basis of their qualifications, professional experience and linguistic skills, as listed in the present vacancy notice. The selection panel will recommend a shortlist of candidates to the Appointing Authority/AACC that will make the final selection. If appropriate, the relevant Director, Managing Director or other senior manager of the recruiting division may conduct confirmatory interviews, prior to the final selection by the Appointing Authority/AACC.

It is recalled that, if the interest of the service so requires, the selection procedure can be terminated at any stage and the post be filled by a transfer in accordance with Article 7 of the SR.

If the successful candidate accepts the position, they will be expected to take up duties on the post. Consequently, their applications to other vacant posts within the EEAS will only be considered after two years on the post. Derogations may be granted in the interest of the service.

ANNEX III

DECLARATION OF POTENTIAL CONFLICT OF INTEREST TO BE FILLED BY CANDIDATES

Article 11(3) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union (SR):

“Before recruiting an official, the Appointing Authority shall examine whether the candidate has any personal interest such as to impair his independence or any other conflict of interest. To that end, the candidate, using a specific form, shall inform the appointing authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest. In such cases, the Appointing Authority shall take this into account in a duly reasoned opinion. If necessary, the Appointing Authority shall take measures referred to in Article 11a(2)”.

Article 11a(2) of the SR:

“Any official to whom it falls, in the performance of his duties, to deal with a matter referred to above shall immediately inform the Appointing Authority. The Appointing Authority shall take any appropriate measure, and may in particular relieve the official from responsibility in this matter”.

These provisions apply to temporary agents in accordance with Article 11 of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS).

It is the candidates’ duty to inform through this form the EEAS of any actual or potential conflict of interest regarding their future tasks. They shall be broad in their identification of actual or potential conflict of interests. It is reminded that it will be up to the administration, and not to the candidates themselves, to assess on this basis whether they are sources of conflict of interests and, if applicable, whether they constitute an issue for the recruitment and, if not, whether they should call for adequate mitigating measures to protect both the interests of the institution and of the selected candidate.
