Excellency,

The European Fisheries Control Agency (EFCA) was established in 2005 with the objective to organise operational coordination of fisheries control and inspection activities by the Member States and to assist them to cooperate so as to comply with the rules of the Common Fisheries Policy in order to ensure its effective and uniform application. (Council Regulation (EC) N° 768/2005 of 26 April 2005, as amended by Council Regulation (EC) No 1224/2009 of 20 November 2009 – Official Journal of the European Union L 128/1 of 21.05.2005 and L343/1 of 22.12.2009).

EFCA invites for the expression of interest for two secondments of a national experts to the Agency. Seconded National Experts (SNE) carry out tasks for the development of activities in the context of the predetermined work programme and supporting EFCA's general objectives.

Their tasks may include:

- Participating in the implementation of Joint Deployment Plans (JDPs) or/and other operational plans;
- Contributing in the field of training ;
- Contributing to the development of EFCA's e-learning courses
- Data processing and reporting;
- Provision of general expertise in fisheries control.

Accordingly, EFCA is considering engaging the Seconded National Experts with the appropriate technical expertise for an initial period of twelve months as from the next possible starting date.

The selected candidate will benefit of the regime applicable to SNE as established by Decision No. 09-I-07 of 19.03.2009 of the Administrative Board of the EFCA (in annex).

The SNE shall remain in the service of his or her current employer throughout the period of secondment and shall continue to be paid by that employer. During the period of secondment, the SNE is entitled to a daily subsistence allowance paid by the EFCA, and may also be eligible for a monthly allowance depending on the distance from his/her place of origin. He/she will remain throughout the period of secondment, subject to the social security legislation applicable to his/her employer, which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad.
