The European External Action Service (EEAS) is looking for an individual to fill the post of Head of the Delegation of the European Union to Iraq, which will become vacant in the overall context of the rotation exercise for 2015.

The Delegation is placed under the authority of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy, who is also Vice President of the European Commission.

Family members are not, at the present time, permitted to join staff at the Delegation in Iraq. The duration of the posting is 2 years, with the possibility to extend.

WE PROPOSE

The Head of Delegation of the European Union to Iraq will assist the High Representative and the Commission in fulfilling their mandates in the field of external relations, and, in particular, will have the following tasks:

- To maintain contacts, exchange information and coordinate with Member States represented in Iraq in the implementation of EU policies and to report regularly to the Headquarters of the EEAS and the Commission as appropriate on all matters covered by his/her mandate and maintain relations with other EU institutions as well as any regional and international organisations present in Iraq;
- To provide advice to the Headquarters of the EEAS and to the Commission as appropriate on policy issues and developments arising within the framework of EU-Iraq bilateral relations;

POSTING POLICY

EEAS career development policy places the need for staff to develop a mix of competences at its core, e.g. working in various fields of expertise and responsibilities in the course of a person's career, including postings at Headquarters and Delegations. Therefore, staff members are encouraged to alternate between Delegation and Headquarters postings.

As a matter of policy, applications of individuals who have dual nationality of the host country or whose partner has the nationality of the host country will be considered on a case-by-case basis. The EEAS examines if there could be a conflict of interest and the consequence of a possible refusal by the host country to grant diplomatic immunity to the staff member and or his/her partner and family, as well as possible security risks. The HR Department may ask for additional information from the applicant in this context.

A posting in an EU Delegation is normally for 4 years (except where the post is advertised with a shorter duration). It is in the interests of the service to ensure that staff members in the Delegations are able to complete full postings before reaching the age of retirement. Before taking any final decisions on nominations, the Appointing Authority will ensure on a case-by-case basis, in the light of the SR and CEOS, that the successful candidates will indeed be able to complete the relevant full posting for the post for which they have been selected.
