consistency and coherence of Union action in Kosovo, including in guiding locally the EULEX transition; support Kosovo's progress towards the Union, in accordance with the European perspective of the region, through targeted public communication and Union outreach activities designed to ensure a broader understanding and support from the Kosovo public on issues related to the Union, including the work of EULEX; monitor, assist and facilitate progress on political, economic and European priorities, in line with respective institutional competencies and responsibilities; contribute to the development and consolidation of respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms in Kosovo in cooperation with the EUSR for Human Rights, including with regard to women and children and protection of minorities, in accordance with the Union's human rights policy and Union Guidelines on Human Rights; assist in the implementation of the Belgrade-Pristina dialogue facilitated by the Union.

A dedicated staff is assigned to assist the EUSR to implement his mandate and contribute to the coherence, visibility and effectiveness of Union action in Kosovo overall.

B. CALL FOR CONTRIBUTIONS

The EUSR support team was established after the adoption by the Council of the Joint Action establishing the EUSR in Kosovo.

The aim of this call for contributions is to select highly qualified international experts for the described position for the EUSR Support Team.

EU Member States and Institutions are therefore requested to second or to support the advertisement for seconded and contracted regime to the following position:

- Transition Coordinator (VN 002/2015)- 1 position (Pristina)
Seconded/Contracted-expert level (Re-advertisement)*

C. METHODOLOGY

1. Member States and Institutions of the European Union, as well as proposed candidates, are requested to examine the profile and job description and ensure that:
 - candidates meet the listed criteria described in the essential requirements and in the specific job descriptions (Annex 1);
 - each candidate completes the standard job Application Form in English (Annex 1).

* All applications submitted in the first round of advertisement for position VN 002/2015 will be taken in consideration therefore Seconding Authority or Candidate doesn't need to submit the application again.

2. Proposed candidates should satisfy in full the criteria set out in the job description. The main criteria for suitability for posts are professional and specific skills and experience. The aim is to select the best qualified candidate.
3. Applications should be submitted at the earliest convenience, but not later than 06 September 2015.
4. Member States and EU Institutions should submit their personnel offers/applications, including a detailed curriculum vitae covering the applicant's career, indicating qualifications and language skills, to the following address:

5. Nominations for seconded candidates will be considered only if received through official channels from Member States (i.e. through Permanent Representations in Brussels) and EU Institutions.
6. A selection board will be responsible for the selection procedure following reception of candidacies.
7. All positions will be subject to CV analysis and interview process.
8. Within the framework of the selection procedure, the candidates considered to be most suitable will be short-listed and interviewed in Pristina, or by telephone, before the final selection is made. Only the short-listed candidates will be contacted.
9. In case a candidate for seconded posts is required to travel to Pristina for interviews, the seconding Member State / EU institution will bear any related costs.
10. The EEAS (Western Balkans, Eastern Europe and Central Asia) will be responsible for notifying Member States and institutions of the European Union of the outcome of the selection process and deployment date.

D. GENERAL INFORMATION

1. All selected personnel should undergo an extensive medical examination, appropriate vaccinations and be certified medically fit for mission duty by a competent authority from the Member State. A copy of this certification must accompany deployed seconded and contracted international experts.[†]
2. The selected candidates will have to be in possession of the necessary level of security clearance (EU SECRET or equivalent). The original certificate of the national security clearance must accompany deployed international experts.

[†] Appointments are subject to administrative formalities, including possible security clearance, medical certifications and/or to be in possession of a valid driver licence.

3. The EU strives to improve gender balance in conformity with UNSCR 1325. The General Secretariat encourages Member States and European Institutions to take this into account when offering contributions.
