

Terms of Reference for Core Team members of the EU EOM to Paraguay
General Elections 22 April 2018

The present terms of reference offer selection criteria for the Core Team (excluding the Deputy Chief Observer whose Terms of Reference are published in a separate call) of the European Union Election Observation Mission to Paraguay. In addition to the Chief Observer and the Deputy Chief Observer, the Core Team is composed of 7 experts, whose individual terms of reference are outlined below.

Preliminary remarks

1. European Union Election Observation Missions (EU EOMs) are independent in their findings and conclusions, but must, at all times, adhere to the standard EU methodology for election observation in both, political/electoral and implementation/security matters, as outlined in the “Handbook for European Union Election Observation.”¹ EU EOMs must follow standard guidelines, models and practices as specified by the European Commission. All mission members must follow the EU Code of Conduct for election observation, as well as adhere to the UN “Declaration of Principles for International Election Observation and Code of Conduct for International Election Observers”²
2. The Core Team is an essential component of EU EOMs. The respective roles and responsibilities of all retained experts is a key element of a successful mission. All members of the Core Team must be experienced in election observation or related activities, fluent in the working languages of the mission, and be able to work cooperatively in a team. Experience and training within EU missions and initiatives will be considered an asset.
3. Please note that due to the evolving context of elections, the following Terms of Reference offer a general overview of the requested job profiles that is potentially subject to changes. The final version including the detailed description of the final profiles and responsibilities of each analyst/expert will be provided in the contract.
4. All Core Team members are required to participate in EU EOM briefings and debriefings organised by the European Commission. These activities are an integral part of the mission.

The working and reporting language of the mission will be English and Spanish.
