

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Directorate for Middle East and Northern Africa (MENA)

Policy Officer Maghreb, MENA.3 - Maghreb division

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job No 418886

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), of representing the EU and of chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

We propose:

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert on the position of Co-Desk officer for the Maghreb countries.

The successful candidate will join the MENA 3 Division, which covers bilateral and sub-regional relations with Morocco, Algeria, Tunisia and Libya.

Functions and Duties:

Under the authority of the Head of Division and the Deputy Head of Division, the Seconded National Expert/Planner is expected to perform the following tasks:

- To contribute to the definition and implementation of EU policies affecting relations with one or more of the countries covered by the Division, including the implementation of the Association Agreements the EU has concluded with three of the four countries and other relevant frameworks such as the Communication on the Agenda for the Mediterranean;
- To contribute to monitor, analyze and follow-up on domestic and foreign policies development in the specific countries, taking into consideration the regional challenges;
- To support and, as appropriate, organise bilateral dialogues (foreign policy, human rights, migration, and a wide range of co-operation in technical sectors), notably in the context of Committees and Sub-committees as defined by the Association Agreements;
- To liaise and coordinate with other relevant EEAS departments, relevant Commission Directorates-General, Council General Secretariat and the European Parliament;
- To ensure effective coordination and liaison with the EU Delegations in the region;
- To ensure effective coordination and liaison with EU member States (notably through the Maghreb-Mashreq Working Group/MaMa);
- To develop and maintain contacts at working level with other stakeholders in particular diplomatic missions, civil society, international organizations;

- To draft and contribute to briefings, reports, speeches, statements, correspondence, and other communications as well as to contribute to the organization of high-level visits;
- To contribute to other tasks within the division as required.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with strong analytical and networking skills to occupy the post of Seconded National Expert (SNE).

The candidate should have a good understanding of EU policy-making and decision-making processes, and an understanding of inter-institutional relations as well as have relevant political experience in the proposed areas. The candidate will be working in a friendly and dynamic environment and contribute to the work of a team of 12 people. He/she will have to work in an international and multicultural environment in close synergy with Member States and EU institutions.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation from other sources;
- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level.¹;
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of one Union language and a satisfactory knowledge of a second language for the performance of his/her duties;
- d) Have a security clearance of minimum level EU-SECRET/SECRET-UE for the functions that he/she will carry out;
- e) Remain in the service of the employer throughout the period of secondment and shall be paid by that employer;
- f) Remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs the SNE and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad. In case of posting to an EU Delegation, the employer certifies that the SNE is covered for medical expenses incurred at the place of secondment, as well as costs of repatriation on health grounds throughout the full period of secondment;
