AC/89-R/119

ECONOMIC SUB-COMMITTEE

Meeting held at the NATO Headquarters, Brussels, on Thursday, 25th June, 1970 at 10.15 a.m. and 3.30 p.m.

DECISION SHEET

I. ECONOMIC ACTIVITIES OF COMMUNIST COUNTRIES IN THE DEVELOPING
AREAS OF THE THIRD WORLD 1967-1969

The SUB-COMMITTEE:

- (1) made a detailed examination of the Summary and Conclusions in document AC/89-WP/287, and in particular the draft recommendations, and decided to forward a revised version of it to the Economic Committee, to be attached to the main report on economic aid, from which the developments relating to military aid will previously have been deleted;
- (2) decided that, in future, economic problems concerning military aid by Communist countries would be the object of annual reports which would be examined in Spring with national experts. The International Secretariat will prepare these reports on the basis of information provided by delegations.

II. VISITS BY PERSONALITIES

The SUB-COMMITTEE:

agreed that benefit would be drawn from hearing talks by high-level officials or personalities from the economic sector of countries of the Alliance when they pass through Brussels.

III. WORKING MEETINGS

The SUB-COMMITTEE:

noted that between official sessions of the Committee, unofficial working meetings could be held, when instructions by national authorities were not needed.

NATO RESTRICTED

IV. ECONOMIC SITUATION IN CUBA

The SUB-COMMITTEE:

invited delegations to find out whether it was possible for experts to attend the examining session on the economic situation in Cuba on 24th September or 1st October.

V. FUTURE MEETINGS OF THE COMMITTEE

- (1) 9th July at 10 a.m. - examining session on the economic situation in Bulgaria;
- (2) 16th July at 10 a.m. - examining session on the economic situation in the Democratic Republic of Germany.
